13 Ways To Kill Your Community

by Doug Griffiths

13 Ways To
In this chapter, Griffiths asks: “Please don’t confuse youth with kids. When I refer to youth, I mean anyone 35 years or younger. Don’t confuse youth with kids. Typically the most energetic individuals within your community, full of creativity, innovative ideas, but not yet prejudiced by bad experiences and fruitless pursuits…”
How do you think board practices would be different if a younger demographic were involved?

Mayor Tom Stalnaker says, "The training was easy and let me tell you, these things are slick. The innovation is fantastic and we are going greener all the time."

"The City of North Liberty recently discarded paper agenda packets for council and commissions in exchange for iPads. Savings estimates the savings in time, ink, paper and other resources to be over $50,000 per year."

With the relocation of North Liberty "Council Chambers, councilors were issued iPads to use in meetings. While in session before, during and after meetings, while commissioners only use them when they are in session."

"Without difficulty, iPads became the obvious choice. Without difficulty, software expenses low and access Internet, email and other applications with ease, keep software expenses low and access Internet, email and other applications. We also wanted to sync them with ease, keep software expenses low and access Internet, email and other applications."

"Cheryl Caplinger, director of Telecommunications, says, "When we decided to distribute the iPads, we realized that technology, but none had taken the plunge. So, it looks like we are the first Municipality in Iowa to make such a transition."

Q: I can't find my library card. What should I do?
A: Please stop by the Special Services Desk or call the Circulation Department at 262-524-3684. There is a small replacement fee for lost or damaged cards. Please note: if your card is lost or stolen, it is important to report this to the library immediately, so our staff can block unauthorized use. Even the loss of the key-chain duplicate card could compromise your account (if you find your old card later). After being issued a new card.

Q: I want to know if I'm eligible for a library card.
A: There is no age restriction. This means even a newborn could be issued a card. If the family is otherwise eligible and with appropriate identification, Questions may be directed to our Circulation Department at 262-524-3684.

Q: How old does my child have to be to be eligible for a library card?
A: Please call our Circulation Department at 262-524-3684 or click here for a link to our Library Policies Page where you'll find these and our other policies and your current Waukesha County address. If you have additional questions about library card registration, please stop by the Special Services Desk near the Library entrance with identification showing your name.
