October 13-15, 2004 has been set aside this year for librarians, library workers, and trustees to learn from the experts and from each other. Sioux City will host the Iowa Library Association Annual Conference and planning is well underway.

Thursday’s keynote speaker is Dr. Kathleen de la Peña McCook, the author of A Place at the Table: Participating in Community Building (ALA 2000). Dr. McCook, an award-winning professor in the University of South Florida School of Library and Information Science, has a special interest in how libraries build community. Dr. McCook believes that people have great faith in libraries as fair and trusted institutions and that, while we may often feel pulled or overwhelmed by new technologies and tools, we are still considered to be honest and diligent keepers of the human record and most willing to share these resources with others. Her newest title is scheduled for publication this summer.

The banquet speaker Thursday evening is Iowa author Donald Harstad. A former deputy sheriff and police investigator, Mr. Harstad is known for his entertaining mysteries set in rural Iowa.

Pat Wagner, one of the partners in Pattern Research, presents “Building Community One Hello at a Time” in the Friday morning general session.

The closing lunch on Friday features Elizabeth McCracken, author of the 2004 All Iowa Reads selection, Niagara Falls All Over Again. The All Iowa Reads 2005 selection will be announced at this luncheon.

Throughout the conference you will have the opportunity to do some personal community-building. Those who arrive on Tuesday (to attend Wednesday’s pre-conferences) will have the opportunity to mingle and learn about the rescue of Sioux City’s landmark Orpheum Theatre. On Wednesday night, following the grand opening of the exhibits, there will be a dessert event featuring The Embers Band in the restored Martin Ballroom. This event is supported by Leo A. Daly Com-

THANK YOU FOR ACTION BY YOU FOR IOWANS AND THEIR LIBRARIES

What happened this year for Iowans and their libraries? Enrich Iowa, Infrastructure, the State Library, and Library Service Areas were all funded at current levels—no additional cuts were made. “Flat” funding may not seem like a victory but with so many areas being cut or eliminated and so many ups and downs along the way—this funding is a success.

- Enrich Iowa language was changed to allow more flexibility to ensure the future viability of resource-sharing programs.
- Progress was made in discussions with Iowa State Association of School Boards and the Iowa School Administrators Association. Both are willing to work with ILA over the interim to find new ways to encourage schools to retain and support school librarians.
- Property tax reimbursements were kept at current levels and that means that local funding in library budgets has a better chance to remain level or improve.
- Tax Increment Financing continues to be available to pay for new libraries and many other public works infrastructure projects.
- Iowa Communications Network is funded, Part III lease agreements have been funded, and the ICN was not sold (again).

More detail and more areas of legislation are covered in the full report on ILA’s website. You’ll find changes in IPERS and in many more areas of interest to you as well as to Iowans and their libraries. Thank you all for the support that made it possible to reach the legislative goals of ILA in a tough funding year. Remember that talking to your legislator is simple and your input is welcome to your legislator. You are the constituent who counts. They like to hear from you when not in session as well as during session.

Even though you may not be in Senator Kitty Reiberg’s district, please send a thank you note to recognize her efforts on behalf of Iowans and their libraries during her tenure. Legislators (even as they retire) need to know that good works are noticed and remembered.

At the Annual Conference in Sioux City the Governmental Affairs Committee will be recognizing those who have been advocates for Iowans and their libraries in this year. If you have communicated with a legislator for Iowans and their libraries, you may pick up an “I” for your badge and be eligible for a prize drawing at the conference.

Take time now to go to the ILA website for the Advocacy Hotline at www.iowalibraryassociation.org. This link will give you an in-depth report for the 2004 Iowa Legislative session and access to a summary of federal legislation and action taken by the Iowa delegation to ALA’s Legislative Day in Washington, DC.
