Iowa Library Association
Annual Conference

Moving Forward Together
Communication, Collaboration, Cohesion

October 19-21, 2005
Grand River Center
Dubuque
Welcome to Dubuque – Masterpiece on the Mississippi – and the 2005 ILA Annual Conference

This year marks the Iowa Library Association’s 115th anniversary. I hope you are ready to celebrate all that Iowa’s libraries and librarians contribute to their communities, and to enhance your ability to continue to provide high-quality service. Our conference theme is “Moving Forward Together: Communication, Collaboration, Cohesion.” As you participate in conference activities, I encourage each of you to seek to identify new ways of working with library colleagues from across the state in pursuit of our common goals.
I trust that you will find much to inspire you in the remarks of our keynote speakers, Carol Brey-Casiano and Jose-Marie Griffiths, and in 35 concurrent sessions. Some of you will choose to focus in depth on a particular area of interest by participating in a pre-conference. All of you will have the opportunity to visit with 80 exhibitors, and to learn more about their products and services.

There will be ample opportunity to have fun, and to catch up with old friends and make new ones. We will have drawings for a variety of prizes, an array of temptations at the ever-popular silent auction, presentations by authors Kenny Salwey and Louise Erdrich, and parties (!) at the National Mississippi River Museum and the Carnegie-Stout Public Library.

I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has made this conference possible through their donation of time, talent, and resources: the Conference Planning Committee, Local Arrangements Committee, and ILA office staff; the speakers, participants in concurrent sessions, and exhibitors; and our many supporters. And thank you too to those of you who are attending the conference. I urge you to share your ideas and experiences with presenters and fellow participants. I hope many of you will attend a session on a topic that is unfamiliar to you, and then find ways to apply what you learn to your library and responsibilities.

Whether this is your first ILA Annual Conference or the latest in a long string, I trust you will find much to interest you. I look forward to visiting with many of you during our stay in Dubuque.

We create libraries that invite you to linger, to relax in a comfortable chair by the fireplace, to meet friends for study, to browse the new book collection or to spend a morning having fun in the children’s area. Simply put, we design libraries that encourage each visitor to stay for a while and to enjoy all that their library has to offer.

Is the stress of modern life poisoning your outlook? Then the Rhiannon Nolan books may be just the antidote you require. If you like your mysteries laced with a little arsenic and a lot of humor, you should meet Rhiannon Nolan, an amateur sleuth and earth mother with some serious attitude. Nothing can stop Rhi Nolan from bringing in her man, or her chocolate. Written by a librarian with twenty-five years experience in public libraries, who understands what library patrons enjoy reading.

Kathy Buchen’s new mystery series is great. Attorney Rhiannon Nolan’s life is hilarious and all the people in little New Belgium make you laugh out loud. Rhi’s best friend, Didi Spencer, is a great sidekick, her purple haired daughter Tabby keeps her on her toes, and Stan the auto repairman and Paul the handyman keep her grounded. Then there is Rhi’s arch nemesis, the local constable, Sgt. LeCaptain, who maintains that all deaths in New Belgium are accidental and dearly wishes Rhi would stop meddling. Luckily for us, she persists!

Rhi goes retro fifties to find a diabolical murderer, but will she survive the walk down memory lane? From the top of her blue streaked punk rock hair to the soles of her orthopedic shoes, Rhi proves her mettle. Hang onto your cheddar. It’s another hilarious romp through cheese head land.

Can Rhi figure out who stung the hated nurse, Miss Waspworthy? A host of quirky characters make for more murder and mayhem as Rhi goes undercover to solve the nursing home murders at Eldermanse.

Coming in 2006: Death in a Bad Habit, Death in Down, Death in Mink, Death in Holly and Ivy.
